- Itinerary:
  - Day 1: Kampala- Queen Elizabeth National Park

After an early breakfast, one of our guides will collect you from your accommodation in Kampala by 8:00am and drive you to Queen Elizabeth National Park. You will make a few stops at the Equator to take some photographs and in Mbarara for lunch. From there you will continue to Queen Elizabeth National Park as you marvel at the breath taking scenery, tea plantations, the open grasslands, long horned –Ankole Cattle, the woodlands and the Rift Valley Escarpment. Have a game drive in the evening as you drive to your place of accommodation. Dine and slumber at your Lodge Meal plan: Lunch & Dinner.

- Day 2: Game drive and Kazinga Channel

Start the day with an early cup of tea/coffee before embarking on a game drive along the Queen's Mile plus the Kasenyi trail. On this trail you will see elephants, water bucks, lions, buffaloes, Uganda Kobs plus warthogs in addition to several birds. Return for breakfast plus lunch at the lodge. In the afternoon, enjoy a 2 hours boat ride on the Kazinga Channel where you will encounter Buffaloes, Elephants, Hippos, kobs plus warthogs among others. This ride will also enable you to see an array of birds. Dine and slumber at your Lodge Meal plan: Lunch & Dinner.

- Day 3: Departure to Kampala/ Entebbe

With wonderful memories of the previous day, you will have a hearty breakfast as you prepare for a primate walk; have lunch at the splendid Kingfisher lodge before continuing to Entebbe. However, visiting the Igongo Cultural Village is an experience that shouldn't be missed. Meal plan: breakfast & lunch.
