Take part in spiritual cleansing at the Bali Holy Spring Temple to purify your mind and soul

- Tour Introduction:

Take part in a combination program of spiritual healing and spiritual cleansing at temple. This 8-hour spiritual journey begins at your hotel at 08:30, where you will be picked up and transferred to the your first stop at Sangeh monkey forest and discover the home of around 200 monkeys in the forest. Believed by the locals to be "God's Guard of the Temple," the long-tailed macaques dwell in certain areas and can often be seen on the roads. .

Continue to Taman Beji Punggul for blessing and healing is performed to remove negative factors in your life, and to help you find peace and happiness. Mantra healing, performed by reciting mantras, clears lower vibrations from your system and elevates your energy. A mantra is a precise combination of sacred sounds that forms a nucleus of spiritual energy attracting high spiritual vibrations, leading to spiritual awakening, empowerment and assistance. Yatra healing is designed to remove afflictions that might be preventing you from obtaining a particular result. This can involve removing blockages in your career and bad intentions of your enemies, protecting you from negative forces, and aura healing and chakra balancing. This overall process is known as melukat by the locals and is carried out to spiritually purify the mind and soul. It can be done at any place considered holy by the Balinese, although the Holy Spring Temple is considered the most holy site for this cleansing.
