- Tour Introduction:

Everest Base Camp Helicopter Tour we will try to find a safe and scenic spot for landing as per the pilot's decision around Kalapathar hill. It provides an amazing panorama of high mountains with Mt. Everest at the mere distance as a crow flies.

Our Everest Helicopter Tour lasts for a minimum of 4 hrs to a maximum of 5 hrs with short stops around the scenic and cultural spots at beautiful Thyangboche it's an impressive monastery, time permitting a tour of the monastery of great interest enriched with Buddhist religion surrounds within the green forest and mountain views.

The program starts early in early at Kathmandu domestic airport with greetings by airline staff and the captain of the chopper. After that, boarding starts on nice wide seats with crystal clear large glass windows, where you can observe awesome views of country landscapes with an array of snow-capped peaks.

Everest Helicopter Tour heads towards the east along with views of mountains then landing for short while at a popular town in Lukla, the gateway to Mt. Everest many trekkers and adventures around the high Khumbu area, with time for a refreshing warm cup of coffee/tea, and refuelling the chopper.

Where our flight heads above scenic Dudh Kosi River Valley to reach the famed Namche Bazaar which is surrounded by the hill and then heads towards our major destination to land at possibly the site for the Helicopter either at base camp or near about. people enjoy views then head down towards Thyangboche Monastery and to Everest View Hotel for breakfast with views of mighty Mt. Everest and majestic Amadablam peaks, before heading back to Kathmandu after a great wonderful experience on Everest Helicopter Tour.
