- Tour Introduction:

Your trip begins with an airport transfer. From the window seat of the plane, you will be able to see a whole range of mountains, as you make your way toward Everest. First, the Langtang ranges make an entrance and grant the Shisha Pangma (8013m) to take the helm. As you head east, the peaks of Gaurishankar (7134m) and Melungtse (7181m) welcome you. Thereon, the Everest Himalayas slowly begin to take shape as you set your sights on Cho Oyu (8188m).

You will come back the same way and get to experience the view a second time this time from a different angle and also you can peek out the other side to see never-ending hills and lower mountains. Mountain Everest flight tours are one of the most popular mountain flights in Nepal.
