FAQs

Why Travel with Confidence and Ucomeafrik?

Ucomeafrik is truly unique in the travel market and the high percentage of clients who travel with us again and again isn't down to chance. Ucomeafrik has been set up by person having passion for travelling and for travellers and our aim is to help adventurous souls get to incredible places that would otherwise remain inaccessible.

Our office is manned by good, experienced, knowledgeable and passionate personels along with that of our experienced guides that is evident in all aspects of the trips, from planning through to implementation. In short, we run the kind of trips that we like to do!

By engaging in personal guided trips and also keeping the group sizes small (maximum 15) we can allow for a greater degree of flexibility and cater to individual needs and this unobtrusive 'low impact' tourism gives travellers a chance to get off the beaten track without damaging the places they visit.

What makes us different?

Using passionate and knowledgeable guides, as well as a dedicated and experienced office staff, we are able to provide unique and original itineraries that allow our clients to take a journey beneath the surface of the region, into those special and off the beaten tracks.

What do I need to bring with me?

Upon booking we will send you a list containing information about the destination cum an equipment list, recommended clothing list and any items that might need.

How far in advance do I need to book my trip?

There is no hard and fast guide, although some trips are popular and booked up quickly. To ensure a place, you can simply book and pay a deposit at any time, and then pay the balance a week prior to departure. Also, be sure to allow yourself enough time to obtain visas and vaccinations where necessary.
