- Tour Introduction:

If you are looking for a holiday destination along with your family then look no further. Nepal, besides from mountains, offers a number of places for you and your family to explore and enjoy. Mesmerizing sunrise, sightseeing of the Himalayas, resorts on the pristine lakeside, jungle safari, etcetera are some of the activities you can expect in Nepal. Our team will be more than happy to assist you and your family during your stay in Nepal with our newly introduced Family Tour Package in Nepal.

- Itinerary:

- Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu & Transfer to hotel

Our representative from CoreTreks will pick you up from the airport and take you to a hotel. The hotels are three-star or above based on your preference. We will have a brief session about our trek and a little bit of sightseeing or shopping around the streets of Thamel. The overnight stay will be at the hotel.

- Day 2: Drive to Pokhara from Kathmandu.

Today we start early since we have a long drive to Pokhara of about 7 hours. After having our breakfast, we start our drive. Enjoying the curved highways and beautiful scenery as we head outside the valley. The drive to Pokhara is somewhat thrilling experience in itself. There will be several break stops before finally arriving to Pokhara. The drive is pretty exhausting, so we spend the night at the hotel.

- Day 3: Visit Sarankot & Sightseen in Pokhara

Early morning drive to Sarankot from the hotel in order to see the sunrise. The driving is approximately 45 minutes to reach Sarankot. After enjoying our morning with beautiful panoramic view of the mountains we get back to the hotel. After breakfast, we prepare for the Pokhara tour. Pokhara contains numerous tourism destination and is widely famous among the locals too. Davis Fall, Gupteshor, Bat Cave, Bindabishini Temple, World Peace Stupa and Tibetan Refugee Camp are some of the major destination within Pokhara that we will be visiting to. Our overnight stay will be at the hotel.

- Day 4: Drive to Chitwan National Park from Pokhara

We start the day early as we have to drive to Chitwan National Park which is around 149km from Pokhara. The drive will be about 4 hours. After reaching Chitwan we will visit a few places around the national parks, taking pictures of the beautiful scenery. Then we will have our dinner and call it a day. Overnight stay will be at a hotel.

- Day 5: Whole day jungle activities in Chitwan

We start our day with some delicious breakfast and prepare for the jungle activities.

Chitwan National Park offers a wide range of activities including Elephant Back Safari, Jeep Safari, canoe ride, cultural programs and visit to Elephant Breeding Centre. Jungle safari is an incredible opportunity to encounter rare animals and birds of Nepal such as Bengal tigers, one-horned Rhinoceros, Leopards, Bengal foxes, Honey Badgers and striped Hyenas. On the other hand, people love bathing with elephant so if you are interested we can go for elephant bathing as well. After such a long day of playing with elephant, taking pictures, and walking, we end our day with some Nepali cuisine. Our overnight stay will be at the hotel.

- Day 6: Chitwan to Nagarkot

On this day we will head to Nagarkot retracing our path through Kathmandu after having our breakfast. The majority of today will be spent driving on the extreme highways of Nepal. Upon reaching Kathmandu, we will take a rest and head towards Nagarkot which is roughly 30km from Kathmandu. Overnight stay at Nagarkot.

- Day 7: Hiking from Nagarkot to Tilkot

After having our breakfast, we start our hike from Nagarkot to Tilkot. The hiking will be around 2 and a half hours. You will be dropped at Bhaktapur Durbar Square from Tilkot. However the hiking is not a compulsion, you could choose to skip the hike from Nagarkot to Tilkot depending upon your preferences. Once we get to Bhaktapur, we will tour around Bhaktapur Durbar Square admiring all the architectures and arts. Overnight stay at the hotel.

- Day 8: Sightseeing around Kathmandu (Patan Durbar Square, Pashupatinath & Bauddhanath Stupa)

After having our breakfast, we drive for around half an hour to Patan Durbar Square. The square is situated at the center of the city of Lalitpur. The palace is an attraction to many due to the fact that royal Malla Kings used to reside there. Besides that, the square is also a marvel of Newar architecture. Krishna Mandir, Bhimsen Temple, Bhimsen Temple, etcetera are some of the temples that we will be visiting to. Then we drive to the famous Pashupatinath temple. Located at 3km northwest of Kathmandu, Pashupatinath is one of the eight UNESCO Cultural Heritage Sites of Kathmandu Valley. The temple reflects cultural, religious, and spiritual belief of the Hindu religion. People from all over the world come to get blessings from Pashupatinath. After successful visit to Pashupatinath, we head towards Bauddhanath Stupa. Rich in Buddhist symbolism, the stupa is considered the largest stupa in Nepal. It is located on the eastern side of Kathmandu. The place is an important pilgrimage for Tibetan Buddhists as well as local people. Then we head back to hotel to spend the night after such a long and tiring day.

- Day 9: Free day & shopping

Optional trip: An hour mountain flight/ Chandragiri cable car etc.

- Day 10: Departure

Like every other tour, it comes to an end. After bidding our goodbyes a representative from CoreTreks will transport you to Tribhuvan International Airport around 3 hours before your flight departure. Since, it might take some time for you to board a plane, we make sure that there is enough time for all the procedures at the airport.
