As the financial and administrative capital of the province, and the capital of Kenya, it is an important place of bustling activity. The largest city in East Africa by population, it is also relatively young and was founded by the British at the end of the 19th-Century. Dubbed the "Green City in the Sun," and home to more than 3 million people, the city has many churches, mosques, and temples, where people of different faiths go to worship. Restaurants reflect its cosmopolitan aspect, serving almost every kind of food, from local dishes to exotic curries from India and Pakistan, as well as Chinese, Arabian and European cuisine. The 5-hour tour will give you a comprehensive overview of the city and help you get your bearings for a longer visit. Highlights include the National Museum of Kenya, full of artifacts relating to the country's history, and the Snake Park adjacent to the National Museum.
