When traveling in a country as uniquely diverse as Nepal, an understanding of its social, ethnic, and religious makeup is vital.

- Itinerary:

- Day 1: Welcome to Nepal

Welcome to Kathmandu! After your arrival at the airport, our representative will welcome and transfer you to your hotel in the heart of the city. On your first day, you can explore the vibrant streets and the winding allies while discovering numerous restaurants, cafes, and stores in the shopping area Thamel. The evening is yours to settle down after your long journey.

- Day 2: Visit famous Spritual sites- Boudhanath, Pasupatinath, and Namu Buddha.

Today you will visit three famous spiritual sites in the Kathmandu valley: Boudhanath, Pashupatinath, and Namu Buddha. Boudhanath, the world's largest stupa with 36 meters, lies about 6 km east of the center of Kathmandu. The design of the stupa is really fascinating, with hundreds of prayer wheels and 108 small images of Buddha all around. As you enter from the hustling main street, you will feel the peace and spiritual energy of this place. The world heritage site Pashupatinath is one of the most famous Hindu temples in the world. Dedicated to Lord Shiva with its golden pagoda-style roofing and richly carved silver doors, and situated on the bank of the holy Bagmati River, cremation processes of the Hindu body are happening regularly. This is a very emotional procedure, yet it offers another perspective on the cycle of life. The pilgrimage site Namu Buddha is situated about forty kilometers from Boudhanath. Located on a slightly elevated land, it is a pleasant and serene place. In this wide panorama, some mountains glisten white like a conch shell or a crystal. From here you can also see forests that seem to gleam with emerald and turquoise jewels.
