- Tour Highlights:

As you arrive in the peaceful rural countryside, you would have certainly left the western world behind and embrace the opportunity to enter a different world in Zimbabwe. Feel at ease and be blown away by the local tradition of outstanding hospitality and spirit of Ubuntu "humanness". As you interact with the locals you will discover the essence of survival in a local village, as you go through introductions, talk about the locals' culture, history, customs and daily lives. If you desire, you can be a part of the working community and if you have children, this is an opportune time for them to experience how life on the other side of the world is. How about teaching them to appreciate the luxuries they have back home.

- Tour Introduction:

This peek into African rural life will surely give your holiday a different perspective. You will be picked from your hotel and embark on an approximately 20 km journey (25-30 minutes) to a local village outside the resort town of Victoria Falls.
